

'Come and Sing' at St Clement's Church, Chorlton-cum-Hardy, Manchester

Saturday 24th November 2018

Programme

John Rutter – The Colours of Christmas

Bob Chilcott – Mid Winter

G. F. Handel – For Unto Us a Child is Born (from Messiah)

Lowry and Green – Mary did you know

Brooks, Redner and DeFord – O Little Town of Bethlehem

Conducted by Jenny Durbin, St Clement's musical director and a highly experienced piano accompanist and conductor. Jenny originally comes from Lincoln, and after studying at Chetham's School of Music and the Royal Northern College of Music, now works as a Head of Music at a Manchester high school, delivering curriculum music to 11-16 year-olds.

Dress Code

For the concert, black trousers/skirt and Christmas colour top (dark green or dark red). Men can wear a black shirt.

Cost

Participants - £10 for the full day's rehearsals, lunch and refreshments and concert. This includes the music. However if you have your own score(s) feel free to bring them to help out with numbers. Details about edition/publishers available on request.

Concert audience tickets are £3 – pay at the door (cash or cheque) for the concert.

Please make any cheques payable to 'St Clement's PCC'. Sorry, but credit card facilities are unavailable. Send payment to Sue Hilton (see contact details) or pay on the day.

Food

A light lunch of soup, sandwiches, crisps and fruit will be available – please advise of any dietary requirements and vegetarians will have a veggie option. Tea and coffee will be available on your arrival and throughout the afternoon.

The tea break will have a selection of cakes and biscuits available.

The Chorlton area has loads of other food options – easily accessed within a short walk from the church if you would prefer to eat out, or of course if you want to bring your own food that's fine too!
